We are counting on our generous corporate partners to help us make this event a success.

Together, we transform lives through these Ministries:

St. Jude House: St. Jude House is our domestic violence prevention center in Crown Point, Indiana which has supported 16,000 families in crisis since 1995. We provide emergency shelter, advocacy, counseling and non-residential programming for more than 650 individuals and their children each year. All support services are provided free of charge.

Madonna Foundation: Established in 2001 by the Franciscan Sisters of Chicago, the Madonna Foundation has awarded more than 1,600 high school scholarships to female students of low-income families. In addition to tuition support, the Madonna Foundation provides programs aimed at college readiness, financial literacy, academic support and wellness. 100% of our Scholars have successfully finished high school and continued their education.
